I was born in Graz and graduated from the Medical University Vienna in 2012. I started my Residency at the ENT- University Hospital Vienna, Dept. of General ORL Head and Neck Surgery in 2012 and then moved back to my hometown Graz in order to proceed with my residency at the ENT-University Hospital Graz. I finished my PhD studies in 2015 and received my postdoctoral lecture qualification ('Habilitation') for Otorhinolaryngology in 2016.

I am a member of the organizing committee of the Graz international and national courses on Rhinosurgery.

My research interests lie in rhinology, endoscopic sinus and skull base surgery, oncology, chemosensory function and the human microbiome.
